

TRANSITION AT A GLANCE

Pape Gaye will transition from president and CEO of IntraHealth International to the role of president emeritus by March 31, 2020. Global recruitment for a new CEO is underway.

Gaye will continue to lead the organization until a new CEO is in place and, in his new role, will pursue new partnerships and special initiatives to expand IntraHealth's impact beyond its core business activities. He will also act as an advisor to the board of directors and incoming CEO.

Gaye has led IntraHealth for 14 years, growing its annual revenue from $20 million to over $100 million in that time. In 2018 alone, IntraHealth's programs reached more than 340,000 health workers in 43 countries. Under Gaye's leadership, IntraHealth has made the health workforce a crucial part of the worldwide conversation on global health and development.

THE FUTURE OF INTRAHEALTH

IntraHealth is always evolving to address the greatest global health and development challenges of our time. New leadership will build on the solid foundation IntraHealth has established and will be part of the continued evolution of the organization. IntraHealth is 800+ employees strong with offices in 15 countries and experienced, creative leaders throughout. We're proud of all we've collectively achieved under Gaye's leadership and are excited that he will pursue the next chapter of his career with IntraHealth as we welcome a new leader.
